

A March Sale Of KID GLOVES

That will justify you in anticipating your Glove wants.

This unusual sale of Real Kid Gloves is prompted entirely with the idea of acquainting you with our high-grade Gloves.

- A REAL KID, with Paris point back, and fits with perfection. Regular $1.50 Glove. Special. $1.15
- A handsome confection in two-clasp REAL KID, with two-toned embroidered back, black and white only. Regular $2.00 Glove. Special. $1.65
- A 12-button Real Kid Muskateer, with Cleopatra button and Paris point, stitched back. Regular $3.00 Glove. Special. $2.25

Kaufmann & Company

Social and Personal

Mrs. P. E. Hoadley and her daughter, Miss Mary Scarborough, have returned to their home on Monument Avenue, after a short stay in New York City. Mrs. Hoadley and Miss Scarborough were accompanied to New York by their guest, Miss Virginia Casper, of Tacoma, Wash., who has been visiting in Richmond for several weeks. A great deal of entertaining was done for Miss Casper during her visit here, and the most enjoyable of the beautiful dance given by her hostess at the Country Club.

Miss Casper will remain in New York for some time before leaving for her home in the West.

At the Clubs.
There will be music and dancing this afternoon at the Hermitage Golf Club during the tea hour, and the usual informal hop will follow dinner to-night at the Country Club of Virginia. Both clubhouses will be prettily decorated for these informal affairs, and a large contingent of the younger society element will be in attendance.

The Westmoreland Club will give the fourth of the series of informal dances to the members and their families this evening from 8 to 11:30 o'clock.

Prominent Wedding.
Says the Baltimore Sun: "The marriage of Mrs. Helen Wylie McLaughlin, daughter of the late William Alexander Wylie and Mrs. Wylie of Baltimore, and Robert Young Conrad, son of Major and Mrs. Holmes Conrad, of Winchester, will take place very quietly to-day at 12 o'clock, at 217 St. Paul Street, the residence of Mrs. Wylie."

"The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. James H. Lacy, pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Winchester, in the presence of the two families only. The bride will wear a going-away gown of dark blue cloth, with a small blue hat and a corsage bouquet of gardenias."

"After a wedding breakfast, the bride and bridegroom will leave for New York, and will sail March 17, by the Carolina, for Europe, where they will spend six weeks, returning in May to their home in Winchester, where a house is being built for them."

"Mrs. McLaughlin is one of four beautiful sisters, the others being Mrs. S. Mount Mason, Mrs. Henry Bogue and Miss Nina Wylie."

"Mr. Conrad is associated with his father in the practice of law, the latter being one of the leaders of the Virginia Bar."

In Richmond.
Miss Birdie Baugh, of Powhatan County, who is spending some time at the Johnston-Willis Hospital here for treatment, is now improving quite rapidly. Mrs. E. A. Baugh is visiting friends in the city.

Charity Affairs.
A bazaar for the benefit of the poor and the Mountain Mission will be held at the home of Miss Elizabeth Gray Valentine, 110 South Third Street, to-day from 12 to 5 o'clock. It will be a very interesting and delightful affair, and the public is invited to attend.

In and Out of Town.
Mrs. William T. McGuire and Miss Laura McGuire, of Winchester, are guests of Mrs. Hunter McGuire, on East Grace Street.

Mrs. P. D. Gilin, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Wythe Davis Howe, here for several weeks, is now visiting in Amelia, before returning to Charlottesville.

Miss Ola Chandel, who spent several days this week with Miss Anna McGee, has returned to Farmville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Fishburne, who have been in Richmond for a short stay, have returned to Florida, where they will remain for the late spring.

Mrs. Archer L. Richardson, of this city, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. L. Hason, in Norfolk.

Mrs. W. C. Scott and her little daughter, Priscilla, are returning to South Boston to-day, after a visit of several weeks here.

Miss Lindsay Satterfield has been the recent guest of Mrs. Arthur A. Taylor at the University of Virginia.

Miss Mary Whitlock, of Louisa County, is visiting friends in Richmond for a week.

Mrs. R. R. Powell has returned to Richmond, after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Frank Highland, in Clarksburg, W. Va.

Mrs. Edward Melton, of Gordonsville,

EFFORTS IN FIGHT FOR TOLLS REPEAL

More Than $30,000 Spent by Carnegie Endowment in Circulating Canal Literature.

SCOTT BEFORE COMMITTEE

Probe Into Alleged Lobby Activities Halted by Illness of DeKnight.

Washington, March 13.—How the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace has aided in the fight for repeal of tolls exacted by the Panama Canal, Dr. James Brown Scott, secretary and a member of the board of directors of the endowment, appearing under subpoena, told the committee that more than $30,000 had been appropriated for "circulation of Panama Canal literature."

Detailing the endowment's effort, Dr. Scott said, 1,000,000 copies of a pamphlet, urging repeal of the exemption clause and signed by virtually the entire directorate, had been sent throughout the country, and 700,000 copies of Senator Root's speech in the Senate urging the repeal had been mailed under the Senator's frank.

Annual statements of the endowment showed the American Peace Society, of which Senator Burton, of Ohio, is president, draws a subvention of $31,000 a year from the Carnegie organization. This money was used, Mr. Scott said, to distribute pamphlets bearing on peace subjects. The committee displayed great interest in the publications dealing with Panama Canal tolls or general arbitration treaties. Dr. Scott agreed to furnish copies of all such documents.

No questions were asked the witness relating directly to charges made by Senator O'Gorman in an executive session of the Senate recently, that the actual purpose of the endowment was to promote an alliance between Great Britain and the United States, its peace propaganda serving merely as a cloak for that purpose.

Seeks Explanation of Relations.
Senator Reed, however, demanded an explanation of the relation between international peace and Panama tolls. The pamphlets sent out by the endowment, he asserted, urged that the United States "yield" to Great Britain, and that this had been Senator Root's view as expressed in the Senate.

"My understanding of Senator Root's opinion is that we either should repeal the exemption clause or submit the disputed portion of the treaty to arbitration," Dr. Scott said. "I believe one of these courses should be followed."

He understood that there is a difference of opinion between the international peace and Panama tolls, and myself, but I am not here to defend my opinions. I am here to furnish the committee with information as to the committee with information as to the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace."

The committee's efforts to determine what effort, if any, to impede the repeal has been made by shipbuilders and seamen, was halted today by the illness of Clarence W. DeKnight, of Washington, attorney, who yesterday admitted that he had spent fifty years urging legislation of various kinds upon Congress. DeKnight collapsed after his physician reported, and the hearing will await his recovery.

Signers of Pamphlet.
The pamphlet issued by "Members of the Board of Trustees of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace," under date of March 1, last, and to which Senator O'Gorman referred in his recent attack on the Carnegie endowment, was signed by Joseph H. Choate, Andrew D. White, Charles W. Eliot, John L. Caldwell, Elihu Root, Luke E. Wright, Charles Maguire, J. B. Woodard, August G. Fox, J. G. Schmidlapp, Robert S. Brookings, Oscar S. Straus, Samuel Mather, James S. Shelden, Charles S. Taylor, Henry S. Pritchett, William M. Howard, Cleveland H. Dodge, Robert A. Francis, Nicholas Murray Butler, Arthur William Fraser, and James Brown Scott.

Its appeal was as follows: "The greatest interest of the United States as a free nation is to represent worthily before the world the principles of justice and equity."

Members of the Board of Trustees of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, under date of March 1, last, and to which Senator O'Gorman referred in his recent attack on the Carnegie endowment, was signed by Joseph H. Choate, Andrew D. White, Charles W. Eliot, John L. Caldwell, Elihu Root, Luke E. Wright, Charles Maguire, J. B. Woodard, August G. Fox, J. G. Schmidlapp, Robert S. Brookings, Oscar S. Straus, Samuel Mather, James S. Shelden, Charles S. Taylor, Henry S. Pritchett, William M. Howard, Cleveland H. Dodge, Robert A. Francis, Nicholas Murray Butler, Arthur William Fraser, and James Brown Scott.

Its appeal was as follows: "The greatest interest of the United States as a free nation is to represent worthily before the world the principles of justice and equity."

Members of the Board of Trustees of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, under date of March 1, last, and to which Senator O'Gorman referred in his recent attack on the Carnegie endowment, was signed by Joseph H. Choate, Andrew D. White, Charles W. Eliot, John L. Caldwell, Elihu Root, Luke E. Wright, Charles Maguire, J. B. Woodard, August G. Fox, J. G. Schmidlapp, Robert S. Brookings, Oscar S. Straus, Samuel Mather, James S. Shelden, Charles S. Taylor, Henry S. Pritchett, William M. Howard, Cleveland H. Dodge, Robert A. Francis, Nicholas Murray Butler, Arthur William Fraser, and James Brown Scott.

Its appeal was as follows: "The greatest interest of the United States as a free nation is to represent worthily before the world the principles of justice and equity."

Members of the Board of Trustees of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, under date of March 1, last, and to which Senator O'Gorman referred in his recent attack on the Carnegie endowment, was signed by Joseph H. Choate, Andrew D. White, Charles W. Eliot, John L. Caldwell, Elihu Root, Luke E. Wright, Charles Maguire, J. B. Woodard, August G. Fox, J. G. Schmidlapp, Robert S. Brookings, Oscar S. Straus, Samuel Mather, James S. Shelden, Charles S. Taylor, Henry S. Pritchett, William M. Howard, Cleveland H. Dodge, Robert A. Francis, Nicholas Murray Butler, Arthur William Fraser, and James Brown Scott.

Its appeal was as follows: "The greatest interest of the United States as a free nation is to represent worthily before the world the principles of justice and equity."

Members of the Board of Trustees of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, under date of March 1, last, and to which Senator O'Gorman referred in his recent attack on the Carnegie endowment, was signed by Joseph H. Choate, Andrew D. White, Charles W. Eliot, John L. Caldwell, Elihu Root, Luke E. Wright, Charles Maguire, J. B. Woodard, August G. Fox, J. G. Schmidlapp, Robert S. Brookings, Oscar S. Straus, Samuel Mather, James S. Shelden, Charles S. Taylor, Henry S. Pritchett, William M. Howard, Cleveland H. Dodge, Robert A. Francis, Nicholas Murray Butler, Arthur William Fraser, and James Brown Scott.

Its appeal was as follows: "The greatest interest of the United States as a free nation is to represent worthily before the world the principles of justice and equity."

Members of the Board of Trustees of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, under date of March 1, last, and to which Senator O'Gorman referred in his recent attack on the Carnegie endowment, was signed by Joseph H. Choate, Andrew D. White, Charles W. Eliot, John L. Caldwell, Elihu Root, Luke E. Wright, Charles Maguire, J. B. Woodard, August G. Fox, J. G. Schmidlapp, Robert S. Brookings, Oscar S. Straus, Samuel Mather, James S. Shelden, Charles S. Taylor, Henry S. Pritchett, William M. Howard, Cleveland H. Dodge, Robert A. Francis, Nicholas Murray Butler, Arthur William Fraser, and James Brown Scott.

Its appeal was as follows: "The greatest interest of the United States as a free nation is to represent worthily before the world the principles of justice and equity."

Members of the Board of Trustees of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, under date of March 1, last, and to which Senator O'Gorman referred in his recent attack on the Carnegie endowment, was signed by Joseph H. Choate, Andrew D. White, Charles W. Eliot, John L. Caldwell, Elihu Root, Luke E. Wright, Charles Maguire, J. B. Woodard, August G. Fox, J. G. Schmidlapp, Robert S. Brookings, Oscar S. Straus, Samuel Mather, James S. Shelden, Charles S. Taylor, Henry S. Pritchett, William M. Howard, Cleveland H. Dodge, Robert A. Francis, Nicholas Murray Butler, Arthur William Fraser, and James Brown Scott.

Its appeal was as follows: "The greatest interest of the United States as a free nation is to represent worthily before the world the principles of justice and equity."

Members of the Board of Trustees of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, under date of March 1, last, and to which Senator O'Gorman referred in his recent attack on the Carnegie endowment, was signed by Joseph H. Choate, Andrew D. White, Charles W. Eliot, John L. Caldwell, Elihu Root, Luke E. Wright, Charles Maguire, J. B. Woodard, August G. Fox, J. G. Schmidlapp, Robert S. Brookings, Oscar S. Straus, Samuel Mather, James S. Shelden, Charles S. Taylor, Henry S. Pritchett, William M. Howard, Cleveland H. Dodge, Robert A. Francis, Nicholas Murray Butler, Arthur William Fraser, and James Brown Scott.

Its appeal was as follows: "The greatest interest of the United States as a free nation is to represent worthily before the world the principles of justice and equity."

Members of the Board of Trustees of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, under date of March 1, last, and to which Senator O'Gorman referred in his recent attack on the Carnegie endowment, was signed by Joseph H. Choate, Andrew D. White, Charles W. Eliot, John L. Caldwell, Elihu Root, Luke E. Wright, Charles Maguire, J. B. Woodard, August G. Fox, J. G. Schmidlapp, Robert S. Brookings, Oscar S. Straus, Samuel Mather, James S. Shelden, Charles S. Taylor, Henry S. Pritchett, William M. Howard, Cleveland H. Dodge, Robert A. Francis, Nicholas Murray Butler, Arthur William Fraser, and James Brown Scott.

Its appeal was as follows: "The greatest interest of the United States as a free nation is to represent worthily before the world the principles of justice and equity."

Members of the Board of Trustees of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, under date of March 1, last, and to which Senator O'Gorman referred in his recent attack on the Carnegie endowment, was signed by Joseph H. Choate, Andrew D. White, Charles W. Eliot, John L. Caldwell, Elihu Root, Luke E. Wright, Charles Maguire, J. B. Woodard, August G. Fox, J. G. Schmidlapp, Robert S. Brookings, Oscar S. Straus, Samuel Mather, James S. Shelden, Charles S. Taylor, Henry S. Pritchett, William M. Howard, Cleveland H. Dodge, Robert A. Francis, Nicholas Murray Butler, Arthur William Fraser, and James Brown Scott.

Its appeal was as follows: "The greatest interest of the United States as a free nation is to represent worthily before the world the principles of justice and equity."

Members of the Board of Trustees of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, under date of March 1, last, and to which Senator O'Gorman referred in his recent attack on the Carnegie endowment, was signed by Joseph H. Choate, Andrew D. White, Charles W. Eliot, John L. Caldwell, Elihu Root, Luke E. Wright, Charles Maguire, J. B. Woodard, August G. Fox, J. G. Schmidlapp, Robert S. Brookings, Oscar S. Straus, Samuel Mather, James S. Shelden, Charles S. Taylor, Henry S. Pritchett, William M. Howard, Cleveland H. Dodge, Robert A. Francis, Nicholas Murray Butler, Arthur William Fraser, and James Brown Scott.

Its appeal was as follows: "The greatest interest of the United States as a free nation is to represent worthily before the world the principles of justice and equity."

THALHIMER'S Saturday a Day of Extraordinary Value Giving in the Men's Section

10 dozen Men's Fine White Madras Pajamas, with silk frog; beautifully made. Saturday only. Sale price $1.09

400 dozen Men's 15c Collars, 4-ply and hand-made, in all the wanted styles and sizes, from 12 1/2 to 18; also in quarter sizes; 6 to a box, for 55c

Do not associate this sale of collars with a job lot of soiled or imperfect collars, for this is not the case, as every collar is perfect in every respect.

50 dozen Men's 75c Fine Percale Shirts, full cut, fast colors and well made. Saturday sale price 50c

Men's Best Lisle Web Suspenders, with calfskin ends and brass trimmings; 50c value. 25c

Men's 12 1/2c all pure Linen Hemstitched Handkerchiefs. Saturday sale price 9 1/2c

Men's Fine Silk Finished Lisle Hose, in tan, navy, black and gray. Saturday sale price, 3 pair for 50c

We will offer you the choice to-day of any Bath Robe in our stock for $2.08. These sold from $4.98 to $6.48. Only about fifteen in the lot.

Many other great values await the thrifty buyer in this up-to-the-minute men's department of ours.

member of the Episcopal Church for many years. His wife preceded him to the grave several years ago, and he leaves no children, but is survived by several nieces and nephews. He was seventy-nine years old. The funeral will take place from his late residence to-morrow morning, and interment will be in Oakwood Cemetery here.

Mrs. Catherine A. Saunders.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Cape Charles, Va., March 13.—Mrs. Catherine A. Saunders, aged seventy years, wife of John H. Saunders, died at her home at Machipongo this afternoon. She had been in bad health for several years. Funeral services will be conducted to-morrow morning at her home, and her remains will be sent to Snow Hill, Md., for burial. She is survived by her husband and three children.

Dr. Alexander H. Haller.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wytheville, Va., March 13.—Dr. Alexander H. Haller died at his residence last night at 12 o'clock, in the eighty-first year of his age. He was born in Wytheville, and was for many years engaged in the drug business here. He is survived by four sons, Charles D., of Bluefield; Dr. John P., of Pocahontas; Dr. John H., of Portsmouth; and Dr. William H., of Portsmouth, and three daughters, Mrs. W. H. Ewald, of Portsmouth; Mrs. R. M. Wolfenden and Miss Nannie Haller, of Wytheville.

Funeral of Thomas Lee Moore.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Christiansburg, Va., March 13.—The funeral services of Thomas Lee Moore, a prominent citizen of Fauquier County, died at his home, near Quince, following an operation for cancer of the stomach, was held yesterday at 2 o'clock at his home, Rev. J. B. Laylander, of the Methodist Church, conducting the funeral service.

Mr. Dulaney was a farmer and made his farm one of the most productive in the county. Together with great energy he combined good business ability and to many in the county enjoyed to a greater degree the conduct of the people. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Mr. Dulaney was sixty-two years old. He was a son of the late John Dulaney, and the last of his family to die. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Alice Whitlock before her marriage four sons, Charles G., and Alvin T. Dulaney, Ruckersville merchants; John and Cary Dulaney, and one daughter, Mrs. Rosa Ott, of Harrisonburg.

Colonel Peter Hairston.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Martinsville, Va., March 13.—Colonel Peter Hairston, of Greene County, died at his home near Quince, following an operation for cancer of the stomach, was held yesterday at 2 o'clock at his home, Rev. J. B. Laylander, of the Methodist Church, conducting the funeral service.

Mr. Dulaney was a farmer and made his farm one of the most productive in the county. Together with great energy he combined good business ability and to many in the county enjoyed to a greater degree the conduct of the people. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Mr. Dulaney was sixty-two years old. He was a son of the late John Dulaney, and the last of his family to die. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Alice Whitlock before her marriage four sons, Charles G., and Alvin T. Dulaney, Ruckersville merchants; John and Cary Dulaney, and one daughter, Mrs. Rosa Ott, of Harrisonburg.

Colonel Peter Hairston.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Martinsville, Va., March 13.—Colonel Peter Hairston, of Greene County, died at his home near Quince, following an operation for cancer of the stomach, was held yesterday at 2 o'clock at his home, Rev. J. B. Laylander, of the Methodist Church, conducting the funeral service.

Mr. Dulaney was a farmer and made his farm one of the most productive in the county. Together with great energy he combined good business ability and to many in the county enjoyed to a greater degree the conduct of the people. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Mr. Dulaney was sixty-two years old. He was a son of the late John Dulaney, and the last of his family to die. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Alice Whitlock before her marriage four sons, Charles G., and Alvin T. Dulaney, Ruckersville merchants; John and Cary Dulaney, and one daughter, Mrs. Rosa Ott, of Harrisonburg.

Colonel Peter Hairston.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Martinsville, Va., March 13.—Colonel Peter Hairston, of Greene County, died at his home near Quince, following an operation for cancer of the stomach, was held yesterday at 2 o'clock at his home, Rev. J. B. Laylander, of the Methodist Church, conducting the funeral service.

Mr. Dulaney was a farmer and made his farm one of the most productive in the county. Together with great energy he combined good business ability and to many in the county enjoyed to a greater degree the conduct of the people. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Mr. Dulaney was sixty-two years old. He was a son of the late John Dulaney, and the last of his family to die. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Alice Whitlock before her marriage four sons, Charles G., and Alvin T. Dulaney, Ruckersville merchants; John and Cary Dulaney, and one daughter, Mrs. Rosa Ott, of Harrisonburg.

Colonel Peter Hairston.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Martinsville, Va., March 13.—Colonel Peter Hairston, of Greene County, died at his home near Quince, following an operation for cancer of the stomach, was held yesterday at 2 o'clock at his home, Rev. J. B. Laylander, of the Methodist Church, conducting the funeral service.

Mr. Dulaney was a farmer and made his farm one of the most productive in the county. Together with great energy he combined good business ability and to many in the county enjoyed to a greater degree the conduct of the people. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Mr. Dulaney was sixty-two years old. He was a son of the late John Dulaney, and the last of his family to die. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Alice Whitlock before her marriage four sons, Charles G., and Alvin T. Dulaney, Ruckersville merchants; John and Cary Dulaney, and one daughter, Mrs. Rosa Ott, of Harrisonburg.

Colonel Peter Hairston.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Martinsville, Va., March 13.—Colonel Peter Hairston, of Greene County, died at his home near Quince, following an operation for cancer of the stomach, was held yesterday at 2 o'clock at his home, Rev. J. B. Laylander, of the Methodist Church, conducting the funeral service.

Mr. Dulaney was a farmer and made his farm one of the most productive in the county. Together with great energy he combined good business ability and to many in the county enjoyed to a greater degree the conduct of the people. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Mr. Dulaney was sixty-two years old. He was a son of the late John Dulaney, and the last of his family to die. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Alice Whitlock before her marriage four sons, Charles G., and Alvin T. Dulaney, Ruckersville merchants; John and Cary Dulaney, and one daughter, Mrs. Rosa Ott, of Harrisonburg.

Colonel Peter Hairston.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Martinsville, Va., March 13.—Colonel Peter Hairston, of Greene County, died at his home near Quince, following an operation for cancer of the stomach, was held yesterday at 2 o'clock at his home, Rev. J. B. Laylander, of the Methodist Church, conducting the funeral service.

Mr. Dulaney was a farmer and made his farm one of the most productive in the county. Together with great energy he combined good business ability and to many in the county enjoyed to a greater degree the conduct of the people. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Mr. Dulaney was sixty-two years old. He was a son of the late John Dulaney, and the last of his family to die. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Alice Whitlock before her marriage four sons, Charles G., and Alvin T. Dulaney, Ruckersville merchants; John and Cary Dulaney, and one daughter, Mrs. Rosa Ott, of Harrisonburg.

Colonel Peter Hairston.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Martinsville, Va., March 13.—Colonel Peter Hairston, of Greene County, died at his home near Quince, following an operation for cancer of the stomach, was held yesterday at 2 o'clock at his home, Rev. J. B. Laylander, of the Methodist Church, conducting the funeral service.

Mr. Dulaney was a farmer and made his farm one of the most productive in the county. Together with great energy he combined good business ability and to many in the county enjoyed to a greater degree the conduct of the people. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Mr. Dulaney was sixty-two years old. He was a son of the late John Dulaney, and the last of his family to die. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Alice Whitlock before her marriage four sons, Charles G., and Alvin T. Dulaney, Ruckersville merchants; John and Cary Dulaney, and one daughter, Mrs. Rosa Ott, of Harrisonburg.

Colonel Peter Hairston.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Martinsville, Va., March 13.—Colonel Peter Hairston, of Greene County, died at his home near Quince, following an operation for cancer of the stomach, was held yesterday at 2 o'clock at his home, Rev. J. B. Laylander, of the Methodist Church, conducting the funeral service.

Mr. Dulaney was a farmer and made his farm one of the most productive in the county. Together with great energy he combined good business ability and to many in the county enjoyed to a greater degree the conduct of the people. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Mr. Dulaney was sixty-two years old. He was a son of the late John Dulaney, and the last of his family to die. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Alice Whitlock before her marriage four sons, Charles G., and Alvin T. Dulaney, Ruckersville merchants; John and Cary Dulaney, and one daughter, Mrs. Rosa Ott, of Harrisonburg.

FOURTEENTH BBIDE AT WHITE HOUSE

Formal Announcement of Engagement of Miss Eleanor Wilson to Secretary McAdoo.

DATE OF WEDDING NOT SET

Washington Society Not Unprepared for News, and Looks for June Ceremony.

Washington, March 13.—The President and Mrs. Wilson announce the engagement of their youngest daughter, Eleanor Randolph, to Hon. William Gilibet McAdoo. This announcement was issued at the White House by Secretary Tumulty to-night, after a day of speculation in capital, official and society circles over the prospects for another White House wedding in June. For weeks there have been rumors that the President's daughter and the Secretary of the Treasury would be married soon, and in the past day or two there has been no denial that an announcement could be expected. The exact date of the wedding is not known, but it generally is believed it will be in June.

There has been extraordinary interest in the engagement among officials and friends made by both Miss Wilson and the Cabinet officer during the year they have been in the capital. The youngest of the family, Miss Eleanor, is said to be her father's pet, and there is a strong personal friendship between the President and the man who is to wed his daughter.

Reports that Secretary McAdoo would retire from the Cabinet after his marriage, and perhaps become ambassador to France, were set at rest to-night by White House officials, who emphatically said that he was expected to remain at the head of the Treasury Department.

Miss Wilson will be the fourteenth White House bride, and the second of President Wilson's daughters to wed in the nation's executive mansion. Her sister, Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson, became Mrs. Francis Bowes Sayre in the East Room on November 25 last.

Washington society has not been altogether unprepared for the news of the engagement, for the couple have been seen together at many a dance and social function. Though Secretary McAdoo is fifty years old and Miss Wilson is twenty-four, intimate friends of the secretary to-day said he is "as young as a man of thirty."

He is fond of tennis and outdoor sports, and played tennis often on the White House courts with Miss Wilson last spring and fall. Miss Wilson is athletic and a good horsewoman, and delights in outdoor life.

Close friends of the couple have known of the engagement for some time.

Car and Wagon in Crash.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Farmville, Va., March 13.—W. J. Burton and his three companions had a narrow escape last night, when he ran his automobile into a wagon, which was standing on the side of the new concrete road south of Farmville. The machine was badly damaged. A farm-house was nearby, and physicians were summoned to attend the injured, and another machine hurried to the scene to bring them to town. Mr. Burton says he was running at a moderate rate of speed, and that when he saw the wagon on a curve he applied the emergency brakes, which failed to operate, thus making the accident unavoidable.

Rawlette—Mullen.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fredericksburg, Va., March 13.—Willie I. Rawlette and Miss Bernice Welch Mullen, both of King George County, were united in marriage yesterday at the parsonage of Hanover Baptist Church, in that county. Rev. A. W. Graves performing the ceremony.

Accidentally Shoots Himself.
Levi Johnson, colored, of 124 Byrd Street, accidentally shot himself in the abdomen last night. The trigger of his pistol hung in his coat when he pulled it out of his pocket, and the revolver exploded. He is in serious condition at the City Hospital.

Stabbed Four Times.
Mary Moore, colored, was arrested in South Richmond last night on a charge of stabbing Josephine Anderson four times in the back. Josephine was taken to the City Hospital for treatment.

Sir Herbert Tree a Grandfather.
London, March 13.—Sir Herbert Tree, the famous actor-manager, to-day became a grandfather, when his daughter, Viola, now Mrs. Alan Parsons, gave birth to a son. Before her marriage Mrs. Parsons played leading roles in her father's productions.

This "SEAL OF PURITY" guarantees that an absolutely pure chewing gum is inside.

It guarantees real juice of real mint leaves. It guarantees pure, firm, springy chicle. It guarantees delicious benefits with the purity sealed in.

Doesn't that appeal to you for your family—this pure pastime that's so easy to get and to carry? It costs less than a cent a stick to give regular aid to teeth, breath, appetite and digestion with it.

Chew it after every meal

Be sure it's clean, pure, healthful WRIGLEY'S.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT GUM LASTS THE FLAVOR

BUY IT BY THE BOX for 85 cents at most dealers. Each box contains twenty 5 cent packages. They stay fresh until used.

Look for the spear.

Preferred The World Over